Lugana

The region is called Lugana and it's located along the southern banks of Lake Garda very close to Verona. Lugana focuses on a white grape they call Turbiana for both sparkling and still wines. Turbiana is indeed unique. The high quality examples have notes of pineapple, mandarin orange with a round and lush style supported by the classic Italian 'green almond' flavor.

Verdicchio

Verdicchio is a white wine grape variety that has been cultivated for hundreds of years in the Marche region of central Italy. It is a versatile variety, used both for light, easy-drinking table wines, and for more complex, ageworthy examples. The binding characteristic across these styles is the telltale almond flavor, which can be accompanied by bitter notes when young or a rich, sweet suggestion of marzipan and honey as the wine ages.

Soave

Soave is an Italian white wine made of Garganega grapes grown around the medieval village of 'Soave' in Northern Italy. Soave wine is known for its melon-and-orange-zest flavors and is usually a dry, light-bodied wine, much like Sauvignon Blanc or Pinot Gris, but it often with a smooth oily like richness that adds a little extra punch. It pairs incredibly well with rich Italian Seafood.

Barbera

Italy is Barbera's original home and the best Barbera wines come from the Piedmont region.

The style of the wine is fresh, with tart blackberry notes and abundant acidity.

The bright acidity in the wine will make a rich fatty or high tannin dish complete.

Barbaresco

The mostly soils in Barbaresco, along with its slightly milder climate results in wines with noticeably less tannins than Barolo. This does not mean is not tannic, is just more elegant and delicate. In terms of flavors, Barbaresco delivers amazing red fruit (strawberry, raspberry, cherry) along with notes of roses and anise and it's not quite as "tarry." Traditional pairings for Barbaresco are rich meat-focused dishes like braised short ribs, beef roasts, lamb or veal chops.

Angelo Gaja

Gaja is one of the stars of the world wine scene, a producer that is widely credited with transforming not just the image and international reputation of its native Piedmont region, but of Italy as a whole. It has had a significant impact on the way that Italian wine is grown, made, priced, distributed and marketed.

Barolo

Barolo is actually the fruitiest and most full-bodied of all the Nebbiolo regions in Northern Italy. When drinking it, expect flavors of raspberry, red cherry, roses, allspice and truffles. The lighter-tasting wine communes include La Morra and Barolo, while the bolder-tasting wine communes include Serralunga d'Alba, Monforte d'Alba, and Castiglione Falletto. The wine's high acidity is perfect to match against higher acid foods with saltiness, fat or olive oil to compliment the wine's tannin.

Etna Rosso

Etna Rosso is a red wine made from two types of Nerello grapes, Nerello Mascalese (min. 80%) and Nerello Mantellato, also called Nerello Cappuccio, (max. 20%). The aroma is intensely grape and berry-like. The taste is warm, robust, full and well-balanced. A fresh, light acidic wine with a typical minerality originating from the volcanic underground.

Chianti

The Sangiovese that forms the majority of the Chianti blend is a thin-skinned grape, which makes translucent wines. Besides Sangiovese, Chianti wines may contain wine grapes like Canaiolo, Colorino, Cabernet Sauvignon and even Merlot. Common tasting notes include red fruits, dried herbs, balsamic vinegar, smoke, and game.

Castello Di Monsanto

The family rejected shortcuts, commercially driven compromises on quality which would have required the vines to be planted densely, large concentrations of vines and the use of chemicals.

They refused to embrace trends that had erased the identity of entire regions, companies and their wines. Castello di Monsanto has followed this strategy ever since its creation – and these are the decisions that have made it what it is today, despite them meaning having to take a harder path.

Rosso di Montalcino

Lighter and less extracted than Brunello, the best examples of Rosso di Montalcino are full of freshness and layered with spices. Rosso comes from the same area of origin as the prestigious Brunello di Montalcino, based on 100% Sangiovese. However, Rosso di Montalcino is released sooner and is more youthful than Brunello.

Brunello di Montalcino

Wines are made with 100% special clone of Sangiovese, called Brunello or Prugnolo Gentile.

Due to its thicker-skinned berries, Brunello produces wines with exceptionally bold fruit flavors, high tannin, and high acidity. Brunello, with its savory punch and brilliant acidity make it a fair contender with richly flavored red meats, tomato-based dishes and Tuscan-inspired fare that highlights olive oil and vinegar.

Val di Cava

Val di Cava represents 1.5% of the Brunello vineyards of Montalcino and 1% of the Brunello production.

Their philosophy is to focus more on the work done in the vineyard rather than in the cellar, in order to respect the balance of the place. This results in a wine that represents the best tradition in structure and aromatics, along with elegance, harmony and fruit.

4445	Brunello di Montalcino, Valdicava 2007 (100% Sangiovese Grosso; 14.5% ABV)	265

Amarone della Valpolicella

Amarone della Valpolicella is a wine made with partially dried grapes in Valpolicella, Veneto, north-east Italy. Amarone from Classico tends to be the most elegant and aromatic, while versions from the Valpantena are generally lighter and fruitier. The most common aromas are cherry liqueur, black fig, carob, cinnamon, and plum sauce along with subtle notes of green peppercorn, chocolate. On the palate, Amarone wines often have medium-plus to high acidity balanced with high alcohol.

Dal Forno Romano

The Dal Forno family has been making wine since 1983. Located in Val D'Illasi, the estate consists of 65 acres of vines planted to traditional indigenous varieties of Corvina, Corvinone, Rondinella, Oseleta and Croatina. The Dal Fornos use traditional methods to grow the finest fruit, and then employ modern techniques to produce the best wines - classic in expression and modern in purity.

Super Tuscans

“Super Tuscan” is a term used to describe red wines from Tuscany that may include the use of non-indigenous grapes, particularly Merlot, Cabernet Sauvignon and Syrah. The creation of super Tuscan wines was a result of the frustration winemakers had towards a slow bureaucracy in changing the wine law of Italy during the 1970’

6067	Syrah ‘Case Via’, Fontodi 2016 (100% Syrah; 15% ABV)	145

Tenuta dell'Ornellaia

The desire to nurture the Estate's exceptional qualities has shaped Ornellaia's philosophy since the beginning. Ornellaia is a cuvée of Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, Cabernet Franc & Petit Verdot and the faithful expression of unique terroir developed in harmony with nature.

Masseto

Masseto emerged as a separate wine precisely because it didn't fit into the Ornellaia concept. Thirty years after its first vintage, this 100% Merlot continues to stand apart from its Bolgheri neighbours an exceptional single vineyards expression.

539	Masseto 1999 (Merlot;14.5% ABV)	2900

Marchesi Incisa della Rocchetta

Tenuta San Guido

Tenuta San Guido is named after the Saint Guido della Gherardesca who lived during the XI century. It is located on the Tyrrhenian coast, between Leghorn and Grosseto. The 18th October the Wedding between Mario Incisa della Rocchetta and Clarice della Gherardesca started it all. Mario Incisa's love of good wine made him plant Cabernet vines in 1942 for what was to become Sassicaia.

Sassicaia

Sassicaia is normally about 85% Cabernet Sauvignon and 14% Cabernet Franc. It is made in a simple fashion way, fermented in stainless-steel, temperature-controlled vats and then aged for up to 24 months in two-thirds new French oak barrels.

The winemaking process has been pretty much the same since the Incisa della Rocchetta family started using stainless steel vats in the early 1980s.
